Art Class

New six week sessions starting soon.

Beginners welcome. Our Tuesday teacher's passion is pastel, the Wednesday teacher is outstanding in oil, but both can teach other media. So, bring your favorite or come experiment (limited supplies available).

Previous experience not needed, just a will to be creative and try something new. Learn to draw and to use colors. Class size is limited, so reserve your place early.

Give it a try! Call or text Sue Ellen Miller for information or to register, 267-907-2498.

Poetry Discussion Group

Wednesday, January 28

2:00 p.m. in the Board Room

(Notice that we are back on the fourth Wednesday of the month at 2:00 p.m., not 2:30 p.m.)

The discussion will focus on Sailing to Byzantium (1925) by William Butler Yeats (1865-1939).

"This is no country for old men...unless"

"Soul clap its hands sing, and louder sing"

"For every tatter in its mortal dress..."

We suggest you also read When You Are Old (1891) to get a fuller sense of Yeats' voice. If possible, print out a copy of each poem.

We look forward to seeing you. Everyone is welcome.

TED Talk Tuesday

Tuesday, January 27

at 3:00 p.m.

in the Blue Room

The Hidden Power of Sad Songs and Rainy Days | Susan Cain and Min Kym

Have you ever wondered why you like sad music? Do you find comfort or inspiration in rainy days? In this profound, poetic talk, author Susan Cain invites you to embrace the feeling of longing -- or the place where joy and sorrow meet -- as a gateway to creativity, connection and love. Accompanied by the splendid sounds of violinist Min Kym, Cain meditates on how heartache unexpectedly brings us closer to the sublime beauty of life.

What are TED talks?

TED is a nonprofit devoted to spreading ideas, usually in the form of short, powerful talks (18 minutes or less). TED is a global community, welcoming people from every discipline and culture who seek a deeper understanding of the world. TED believes passionately in the power of ideas to change attitudes, lives, and ultimately, the world.

Do You Love Birds? Do You Love Nature? A Special Program!

As stewards of the environment, many of us at Pennswood are concerned about declining bird populations and the huge number of birds lost to window collisions every year.

Please join us for a special program on Monday, January 19 from 1:00 - 2:15 p.m. in the Blue Room to welcome Barbara Stollsteimer, a member of Bird Safe Bucks County, who will introduce us to her organization and inspire us to do our part to protect the birds we love. Don't miss this one!

If time allows, we might share some recent bird sightings and some of our unforgettable WOW moments.

“Mass Incarceration: Warnings from the Recent Past”

U.S. District Judge Jed Rakoff

Thursday, January 22

7:15 p.m. in Penn Hall

Jed S. Rakoff is an independent-minded, senior federal judge with the Southern District of New York. He is also an adjunct professor at Columbia University and NYU law schools. With degrees from Swarthmore, Oxford, and Harvard, he has authored more than 2,000 opinions—often groundbreaking, headline-making, and controversial. In 2002 (United States v. Quinones), he called the federal death penalty unconstitutional. During the 2008 financial crisis, he called for stronger penalties against corporate wrongdoers. A leading commentator on the American legal system, he has authored over 130 published articles, contributes regularly to The New York Review of Books, and wrote a widely admired book: Why the Innocent Plead Guilty and the Guilty Go Free, and Other Paradoxes of Our Broken Legal System (2021). He served as co-chair of the National Academy of Sciences committee on eyewitness identification. In 2014, Judge Rakoff was listed by Fortune magazine as one of the World’s 50 Greatest Leaders. A college classmate of John Pollock’s, Jed Rakoff also officiated at Peggy and John’s wedding in 2023.

Book Discussion Group

Monday, February 2

1:00 p.m. in the Blue Room

Tuscany, 1944: As Allied troops advance and bombs sink villages, a young English soldier, Ulysses Temper, finds himself in the wine cellar of a deserted villa. There, he has a chance encounter with Evelyn Skinner, a middle-aged art historian intent on salvaging paintings from the ruins. In each other, Ulysses and Evelyn find a kindred spirit amidst the rubble of war-torn Italy, and paint a course of events that will shape Ulysses' life for the next four decades.

Returning home to London, Ulysses re-immerses himself in his crew at The Stoat and Parrot—a motley mix of pub crawlers and eccentrics—all the while carrying with him his Italian evocations. So, when an unexpected inheritance brings him back to where it all began, Ulysses knows better than to tempt fate: he must return to the Tuscan hills.

All are welcome.

Childhood Treasure

In winter what better time to look back on your youth and reminisce about your childhood? Did you bring a treasure to Pennswood? Perhaps a game, a doll, toy truck, favorite book, a sport item, a train car, a worn teddy bear, a concert ticket, an old letter, your baby teeth.

Take a nostalgic trip down memory lane. Please bring ONE item to Passmore Gallery on Thursday, January 22 between 9:00 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. and check in. Items will remain until closing of show on April 16.

A reception in Passmore will be on Friday, January 23 from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. Come and talk about your entry.

Lost Found: How a Psychologist Coped with a Loved One's Hoarding and Lived to Tell the Story

Dr. Deborah Kassman, PsyD

Thursday, January 22

1:00 p.m. in Penn Hall

Snow Date: January 29

How does a psychologist fail to recognize that her intelligent, sensitive, and book-loving mother has created "the worst hoarder ever seen?" Deborah Derrickson Kossman will share from her book and discuss hoarding, the impact of cognitive impairment and mental illness, and the difficulties of treating a family member who struggles with this disorder.

There will be time for questions and discussion.

You're Invited: An Evening Celebration of Robbie Burns

On the evening of Monday, January 26, join the community in Penn Hall at 7:15 p.m. for a spirited Celebration of the Life and Times of Scotland's National Poet, Robbie Burns.

This once-a-year celebration blends ceremony, culture and community in a way that no other event does. It's warm, it's musical. It's full of surprises and laughter. And it's the perfect chance to experience a bit of Scotland right here at home.

Come for the pipes.

Stay for the poetry and song.

Have a few laughs.

Leave with a smile.

Sharing Our Journeys

Tea-Time Travel Tables

What happened on one of your adventures that you love to tell people about?

Tea Time Travels is a facilitated afternoon gathering for us to discuss our travel adventures and observations. Topics covered have ranged from “Your First Significant Journey as an Adult” to “The Most Unusual Food you have Eaten While Traveling”. Each resident has a chance to talk about their adventures. The discussions meet every other month from 2:30 to 4 pm in the side room of Seasons. The next meeting will be on:

Save the Date! FRIDAY, JANUARY 30 Save the Date!

and our theme will be: The Most Beautiful Park You Have Ever Visited.

Come and enjoy a lively discussion full of fascinating stories.

Transition Talk

Do you want to go beyond small talk and get to know some of your fellow residents on a more personal level?

Transition Talk will be held on Monday, January 19 at 4:00 p.m. in Penn Hall.

Join new residents, as well as residents who have been at Pennswood for two to five to ten years and more, for small group discussions about things that are important to us as residents of a senior community.

You will share your thoughts and experiences and listen to what others have to say, finding support and commonalities along the way.

Pittsburgh Panorama

A tour of Pittsburgh by Starr Tours will take place from August 20 through August 23, 2026.

In addition to a sightseeing tour of the city, the trip will include stops at the John Heinz History Center, the Frick Museum, the Phipps Conservatory and Botanical Garden and a ride on the Duquesne Incline for an impressive view of the area.

We will stay at the Pittsburgh-Green Tree DoubleTree Inn. Additional details can be found on Starr's website.

Residents interested in the trip will need to make reservations directly with Starr which can be done by phone (609-587-0626) or online at starrtours.com

When making a reservation there will be options such as trip protection insurance, single room vs. shared room, and meal choices.

Trip Committee members Sally Burkman or Walter DeWitt can provide assistance in dealing with Starr.
